

Mt Nelson Signal Station 200th Anniversary

Wednesday 30 November 2011
12.00 o'clock to 7.00pm
Mt Nelson Signal Station
Nelson Road, Mt Nelson

Program

- | | |
|-----------------|--|
| 12.00 – 1.00pm | Signalling demonstrations: flags, Morse code and Aldis lamp use |
| 1.00pm | A time-ball will be raised to commemorate the station's role in providing the time to the city of Hobart |
| 1.15pm – 4.30pm | Signalling demonstrations: flags, Morse code and Aldis lamp use |
| 4.30pm | Address by Hobart City Council Lord Mayor, Alderman Damon Thomas – The significance of the station in Hobart's history |
| 5.00pm | Band music: The Australian Navy Tasmanian Jazz Band and Australian Navy Drill Team |
| 6.00pm | Band music: Tasmanian Police Pipe Band |
| 6.30pm – 7.00pm | Signalling demonstrations: flags, Morse code and Aldis lamp use |

There will be a display of children's artwork from Mt Nelson Primary School in The Station Cafe open for viewing throughout the day. Interpretation information and artefacts display will be open for viewing in the signal station building.

The Mount Nelson Signal Station is only a 10 minute drive from the Hobart city centre. Take the Southern Outlet (A6), then turn off to Mount Nelson, and continue along to the end of Nelson Road (C643). Metro Tasmania run a regular public bus service from the city centre to the Mt Nelson Signal Station - see www.metrotas.com.au/timetables/view/77

We encourage you to catch a bus or walk to avoid parking difficulties.

For further information please contact Wildcare volunteer Christian Bell on 0427 872 670